ESTABLISHED A.D. 1786

VOLUME LXXXII.---NO. 236. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1867. PRICE THREE CENTS.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

THE OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS come in very slowly. Colonel Jordan, Chairman of the Union State Central Committee, concedes the election of Judge Sharswood by a majority approximating one thousand, and from the table of official and estimated majorities, given elsewhere, we are compelled to admit the truth of his calculation. However, additional returns may alter the figures, and we have still a faint ray of hope for the election of Judge Williams.

THE RESULT IN THE STATE.

Below we give the result of the election in the State, as far as reports have reached us. Those marked thus * are official.

Official majorities from forty-three counties are given in the above table, indicating, with the reported majorities from the remaining twenty-two, a majority of 565 for SHARSWOOD.

The twenty-two counties to hear from gave a Republican majority of 2,292 in 1866.

THE LINCOLN FUND.

After Mr. Lincoln's death a move was made to raise a Lincoln Fund, by subscriptions of one dollar. The amounts thus collected were to be sent to B. B. Sherman, of New York, who was endorsed by Messrs. Greeley, Weed and other prominent men. S. Riddle, Esq., then Postmaster of Allegheny, has shown us a receipt from Mr. Sherman, for one hundred dollars, raised in Allegheny City and forwarded to Mr. Sherman. If other cities responded with equal liberality, a very considerable sum must have been raised. In view of Mrs. Lincoln's poverty, it would be interesting to know how much was forwarded, and what was done with it. Will Mr. Sherman inform the public?

A MISS GREENE, of New Baltimore, New York, has been shot at and wounded three times within a few months. The last time a man came to her in the garden, at noon, uttered a threat, fired and fled. She has made affidavit denying all knowledge of him, and the affair is quite a mystery.

ON the Pacific coast of South America is a population of many thousand persons between the 18th and 28th parallels of South latitude, who, with all their animals, use water distilled from the ocean by coal brought from England. They are miners and run locomotives with distilled water.

THE French have been experimenting on the slaughtering of animals for market with the least pain to them, and have decided that the old practice of killing by means of a blow from a hammer should be continued.

THE democracy begin to hope that "the Constitution of our fathers" will soon be re-adopted; and the auction block, slave whip, and blood hound be restored to their old supremacy in the government.

THE Republican press is fast taking ground that, in suspending Secretary Stanton, President Johnson has furnished a precedent for his own suspension, while on trial for impeachment.

A GREAT ratification meeting is to be held in Washington, on the 18th, to ratify the nomination of Andrew Johnson for President and General Sherman for Vice President, in 1868.

IF the result of the elections will induce the democrats to nominate Johnson for President said elections are very great blessings in very slight disguises.

SEWARD leaving Washington and Reverdy Johnson arriving there gives rise to the idea that the Cabinet is to be reconstructed on Southern principles.

THE Radicals have defeated the Conservatives in Omaha, their stronghold in the new State, by two hundred and fifty majority.

AN American now traveling in Egypt describes his visit to the Catacombs as in the last degree dangerous and disagreeable.

IN Harrisburg a teacher of a public school sent a pupil to jail for disorderly conduct in school.

MACHINES for digging potatoes have been invented and tried in Scotland.

—Prussia furnishes every non-commissioned officer in her army with a French grammar, a French and German dictionary, and a topographical map of the north and east of France. This is considered significant.

THE INVASION OF ROME.

FLORENCE, Oct. 11.—The insurgents and invading parties in the Province of Viterbo are concentrated at Forenerso, where they have thrown up intrenchments. Many other places in the Roman Territory have also been occupied by the Garibaldians. Several regiments of Pontifical troops have been sent out to dislodge them, and the garrison within the walls of Rome at present is very small.

A strong Papal force has left Rome to prevent the junction of the men at Attic with Garibaldi and other parties under his command with the insurgents at the fortress. The plan of the Garibaldians at Cadiz seems to be to draw the soldiers of the Pope away from Rome, and then give their friends in that city an opportunity to rise.

NAPOLEON COMPLAINING OF AUSTRIA.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—A report from Paris says Napoleon is complaining of the delay of the Austrian Government in completing the military organization of the empire.

PARIS, October 11.—Arrangements have been completed for a meeting between the Emperor Napoleon and the King of Prussia at an early day, and the city of Baden has been fixed on as the place where the interview will take place.

FEARS OF THE POPE.

The Presse says that the Pope, while confident of the ability of his forces to successfully resist the struggling parties of invaders, greatly fears that the Italian government will yield to the popular outcry, and order its troops, now concentrated upon the Papal frontiers, to march upon Rome and occupy the city.

THE EMPEROR AND GERMANY.

PARIS, October 11.—The Standard to-day publishes a letter, which it declares genuine, addressed by the Emperor to Marquis De Lavallette, his Minister of the Interior, and written in August, 1866. In this letter the Emperor explicitly denies that he has any desire to interfere with or profit by the reconstruction in Germany.

DAMAGES AWARDED.

The Supreme Court to-day gave a verdict in $5,000 to Mrs. Fillo, whose husband was burned to death in consequence of an explosion of fireworks in the store of the Messrs. Jones.

COUNTERFEIT 7-30s.

The American Bank Note Company pronounces the spurious 7-30's as counterfeits. Jay Cooke & Co. received another $10,000 worth from the West this morning. Fisk & Hatch have had $10,000 sent to them, $9,000 of which were received to-day from Buffalo and Ohio. These bonds will be immediately returned. Among other holders are Heiser & Co., $8,000; Brewster, Southwick & Co., $11,000; Winslow & Co., $5,000, and Mechanics Bank, $5,000. Several other firms have received small lots. Nearly all the counterfeit bonds came from the West, the first received here being sent from Leavenworth September 17th, and now many come from Buffalo. It is not known to what extent they have been received by the Government, but it is believed the first estimate was much exaggerated. They are received here in small lots, no remittances of them exceeding $10,000.

MISSIONARIES FOR CALIFORNIA.

Among the passengers to-day by the Henry Chauncey, for California, were several missionaries.

AFTER THE COUNTERFEITERS.

The Express' Washington special says the Government is on the track of the counterfeiters of the 7-30 bonds, with a fair prospect of their capture.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Vincent Cady was to day convicted of murder in the second degree, for the homicide of Prof. John R. Livingston, on the night of April 17th.

WASHINGTON.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, October 11, 1867.

THE COUNTERFEIT SEVEN-THIRTIES.

It is the opinion of experts connected with the Treasury Department, that the the counterfeit plate of Seven-Thirty imitation bonds was not made in this country. Suspicion as to their genuineness was first excited by duplicate numbers, when, by close inspection with the microscope, and comparison of the genuine with the counterfeit, their true character was discovered. About seventy thousand dollars worth of spurious bonds had previously been redeemed at the Treasury, but the Government, it is said, will lose nothing by this, as it has the receipts of the various parties presenting them. At the chief loan branch Mr. Andrews to-day refused, rather discourteously, to furnish information on this subject, saying he did not feel at liberty to do so under the recent order of the Secretary with regard to furnishing information to persons not connected with the Department.

The particulars from Norfolk county show a serious state of affairs among the negro squatters. Besides resisting the United States officers, they have held meetings which they attended armed, and at one of the meetings the chief speaker urged the idea that the negroes were more powerful than the whites in the South, and would hold the lands they were on at all hazards.

The Hackmen.

In Thursday's GAZETTE we called the attention of the City authorities to the fact that the hackmen of the city were, whenever an opportunity offered, victimizing the travelling public and particularly strangers, notwithstanding the ordinances passed by the City Councils to prevent it, and cited an instance which came under our observation. Since that time we have heard of numerous other "dodges" of which they resort for the purpose of "fleecing" customers, one of which we give the following: A few evenings since, an elderly gentleman arrived at the Union Depot from the east, and wishing to go to the Mansion House, inquired of a hack driver. He had accosted him with "A carriage, Sir," where it was Hacky informed him that it was in the lower part of the city, and the old gentleman concluded to take a carriage. He was driven down Liberty street instead of driving direct to the Mansion House, which is on Liberty street, between Smithfield and Grant streets, he was driven up Grant to Fifth, down Fifth to Smithfield; up Smithfield to Liberty, and thence to his place of destination, for which he was only charged the reasonable sum of two dollars. He protested against paying it, but was informed that he never knew it was the regular rates.

As we remarked in a former article, it is scarcely worth while for Councils to spend their time in passing ordinances when there is no effort made to enforce them; but we would recommend an ordinance requiring each hackman to have a printed list of charges, posted in a conspicuous place on the inside of his hack, with the name of the driver or owner attached. The rates have already been established by ordinances, but unless some such method as the above is adopted, it is of no benefit to strangers, who are generally the persons victimized. The citizens are seldom imposed upon by these "land sharks," for they know that they will not submit to it; but strangers, not knowing anything about our city regulations, are completely at their mercy. In many instances this business is practiced by the drivers without the knowledge of the owners, and in direct violation of their instructions.

Fatal Accident—Coroner's Inquest.

A very distressing accident occurred in Birmingham on Thursday, which we mentioned in yesterday's GAZETTE, but not hearing the particulars at that time, we were unable to give a satisfactory account of it. The facts of the case as stated before the Coroner's jury, at the inquest yesterday morning, are as follows:

Thursday evening, about six o'clock, Mary Ann Dover, aged six years, daughter of Mr. John Dover, and Ella Squires, aged fourteen years, were playing on Carson street, Birmingham, near the residence of Mr. Dover, and in running Mary Ann Dover stumbled on the curb stone and fell upon the platform of an abandoned well in front of the residence of Mr. William Graff, the boards of which gave way, precipitating her to the bottom, a distance of sixty feet. Her companion gave the alarm, but the child was drowned before assistance could reach her. These facts were testified to by Ella Squires. Several other witnesses were called, one of whom testified that he had notified the Street Commissioner twice of the dangerous and unsafe condition of the well.

The jury returned the following verdict: That Mary Ann Dorer came to her death by falling into a well and drowning, in the borough of Birmingham, on the 10th of October. The jury further find that the borough authorities are culpable in not removing said well from the side walk.

Meeting of Return Judges.

The Return Judges of Allegheny county met in the District Court Room yesterday at ten o'clock a. m., and presented the returns of the elections held in their respective districts on Tuesday. The meeting was organized by calling J. V. Donaldson, Esq., to the chair, after which the votes were received for counting. They remained in session until four o'clock, when, the returns having all been received and entered by the clerks, the meeting adjourned. The totals were not added up at the time of adjournment.

ARREST OF THOMAS WHITTAKER.—Thomas Whittaker, who, it will be remembered, was tried for the murder of David Sproull, of Washington county, and acquitted, was arrested last evening on a charge of larceny, on oath of Mary Sproull, sister of the murdered man. He was taken to the lock-up, and will probably be taken to Washington to-day.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1867.

IMPEACHMENT.

A New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier, who claims to have definite information, asserts that the President is determined to resist impeachment, if it shall be attempted, on the ground that a number of the Senators, and especially Howard, Thayer, Nye, Sumner, Wade and Chandler, have already, and in a public manner, expressed opinions as to the merits of the case; that, to this end the President has for months past had certain speeches of these Senators carefully reported; and, if driven to the necessity, will present this record in justification of any extreme measures he may feel constrained to adopt. It hardly seems creditable that any man of ordinary sense, and particularly a lawyer, should take this position, which has no color of support in the Constitution or in common sense. But, assuming that the President is infatuated to the extent of believing this attitude to be just and tenable, it is worth while to consider it.

The President proceeds upon a supposed analogy between the organization and function of the Senate, when engaged in a trial upon Articles of Impeachment, and a traverse jury, called and sworn, in an ordinary criminal court to try a person indicted for an offence against the laws. Such analogy does not exist in fact, but only in his own fancy.

The laws provide that four times a year, in each county, a proper number of citizens, having the requisite qualifications, shall be subpœnaed to serve as jurymen for the trial of any issues that may be pending. Their function is limited to that particular service. Nothing else is required of them, nor can they officially do anything else. The laws further provide that for a juryman to express an opinion of the merits or demerits of a particular case works his disqualification for setting in the panel by which it is to be decided. This rule has, indeed, existed from the beginning of trials by juries, but is now generally regarded by most persons competent to form a reliable judgment upon it as unreasonable in itself and of mischievous tendency.

A crime of serious magnitude is committed in a county. It becomes inevitably a matter of notoriety. Inevitably all men accustomed to weigh and decide problems of any sort, come to such conclusions as the evidence adduced seems to warrant. The floating evidence may recede or accumulate from day to day. Corresponding changes are wrought in the opinions of men to whom knowledge comes. When the case comes on for trial, the minds of judges, jurors and spectators are swayed to and fro as the train of evidence is presented, until the whole that is known is brought out, and then a decision is reached, if the evidence is sufficient for that purpose; otherwise the case is determined by the doubts that perplex it. In by far the larger number of instances men who had previous knowledge of the person impeached, of many of the details of that transaction under review, and who have expressed opinions as to the guilt or innocence, right or wrong involved, are more competent to reach a correct decision than men who have lived in presence of the event without taking any interest in it, or who have heard much of the evidence without giving expression to a judgment upon it.

Besides, if there is a point worth maintaining in the matter of pre-judgment, it is not so much that it has been expressed as that it has been formed. Men who are cautious in giving utterance to their pre-judgments, are quite as likely as others to form them, and to be swayed by them against evidence that may be subsequently submitted for consideration.

The safer plan, therefore, appears to be to get such men for jurymen as parties litigant would select for arbitrators, which is not often done, and then ask no questions as to what any one of them may have known, thought or said of a case previously to entering upon the trial thereof. A man fit to serve as a juror will have any erroneous estimates he may have formed through defective knowledge effectually corrected by the evidence disclosed.

The function of the Senate when sitting to determine a question of impeachment is peculiar. The Constitution declares, Article three, section two, clause three, that impeachments shall not be tried by juries. Such trials, therefore, do not fall under any of the rules by which juries are impanneled or controlled. No larger panel from which a smaller one can be selected is provided by the Constitution and Laws. The Senate, as it may chance to be constituted at the time, has the disposition of the matter laid upon it. None of its members can be excused or set aside. They are all jurors. Nor is any legal obligation laid on them to approach this special duty without having beforehand expressed or arrived at a definite judgment respecting the matter. Other duties with which they are distinctly charged, and which employs them most of the time, makes such reticence almost if not quite impossible. They are legislators, and the open discussion of all public questions devolves upon them. Without such discussion, the performance of their duties would have to be omitted. No Senator ever exercised the freedom of debate with greater audacity than Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON. It was the boldness with which he used that privilege, or, rather, exercised that right, which elevated him into such conspicuity that he was nominated by the Republicans for Vice President. Hence, it is not conceivable that he now regards the discussions of the Senate chamber as having cancelled the right of Senators to sit in judgment upon him in case the House of Representatives shall prefer Articles of Impeachment against him.

Manifestly the President refers to discussions of his conduct, by Senators, in popular assemblies. While we concede there is a question of delicacy here, we are far enough from admitting there is one of right. When the impeachment of the President becomes a matter of public concernment Senators have as undoubted a right to discuss it in the primary convocations of the people as to debate any point relative to impost or excise duties. Each for himself is sole judge as to what he shall do in the premises. As to the point of delicacy, he will be judged by every individual to whom a knowledge of his course shall come; and these judgments will vary according to the characters and temperaments of the persons forming them. Doubtless, the President thinks it exceedingly indelicate for a Senator to denounce him before a mass meeting of citizens deserving of deposition from the high trust he holds. He did not think it indelicate for him to declaim before such assemblies against Congress as "a sort of fungus hanging on the verge of the Government." Most people will be apt to conclude that in both cases the question of delicacy or indelicacy must be determined not by the fact of discussion, but by the manner in which the discussion is conducted. A fair, manly, and dignified treatment of any public question cannot be indelicate.

A LOCOMOTIVE ran against a lumber wagon in Chicago, killing the horse and one man, and dangerously wounding two others. The son-in-law of the deceased, who lived near, was asked to permit the corpse to be taken to his house, but he replied in a most brutal manner that he did not want the "disgusting object" in his house, and would throw the body out of doors if brought on his premises.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Among the noblest and grandest organizations for missionary purposes is The Church Missionary Society of England. A number of clergymen met for Conference in 1799, resulting in the formation of this Society. At the time it was organized the Church of England was enveloped with calamitous circumstances, so that very little success at first attended the efforts of the Society. Besides the dark period at home, there was positive opposition to the extension of the gospel. In the West Indies, opinion and practices, which had the force of law, precluded seven hundred thousand slaves from the light of the truth. Not until 1813 was a Christian teacher permitted, as such, to enter India. For several years very little was done by the Society beyond holding an organization. Not a single missionary had been sent out until after the fourteenth year. Very few of the bishops sanctioned the movement. In the year 1842 the Archbishops of Canterbury, and York, united with the Society. In 1814, fourteen years after its organization, one mission was established, and the income of the Society was $14,155. Next year it rose to $50,000, and the year following to more than $75,000. New fields of labor were opened, and gradually the income continued to increase. In 1819, the twentieth year, it was over $135,000. In 1829, the thirtieth year, it reached $265,000. In 1843 the gross receipts were $565,500. The Society has now reached its sixty-eighth year. It numbers fully fifty bishops of the Church of England among its supporters. The American Church Missionary Register, from which we glean these interesting facts, says the income of 1865-6 was over $780,000. There are now 154 stations, 276 ordained missionaries, 29 unordained missionaries, 1,023 teachers —a total of 2,128 laborers. The number of communicants were 14,339. The missions of the Society are in West Africa, Yorubs, Niger, Turkey, Greece, Asia Minor, Palestine, Bombay and West India, Calcutta and North India, Madras and South India, Ceylon, Mauritius, Madagascar, East Africa, China, New Zealand, North West America, and the North Pacific.

The General Convention of Universalists, just held at Baltimore, had adopted, by all except one vote, a resolution demanding that membership in the denomination be made dependent upon a belief in the Divine authority of the Scriptures, and the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

At the late session of the Kentucky Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, resolutions were adopted, denouncing the holding of charitable or church fairs, in which gambling, betting, raffling, or any other immoral conduct is allowed, and requiring the ministers to warn the members against the prevalent evils of dancing, drunkenness, card playing, or other gambling, visiting balls, theatres, circuses, negro minstrels, or other demoralizing exhibitions.

The American Board, at its recent session at Buffalo, determined to call for sixty men, mainly for China.

One of the Superintendants of the railroads running out of Chicago, a good Christian man, sends a locomotive eighteen miles every Monday morning, at six o'clock, to bring to his work a Sunday School Superintendant, who cannot otherwise get to his duties in season. He goes to this place to superintend a school in a destitute district.

New South (Unitarian) Church, at one time the aristocratic church of Boston, ran down to a mere handful, and the society have voted not to carry on worship any more there. Possessed of a valuable propersy, the remaining members proposed to disband, against the the earnest wishes of the minister, sell the property, and divide it among themselves. This step was resisted by a process of Court, and the highest tribunal known to the laws decided that the society cannot sell, cannot pocket the proceeds, but are merely trustees.

Rev. G. De La Matyr, just nominated by the Republican State Convention of New York, as Prison Inspector, is a Presiding Elder in the Genesee Conference of the M. E. Church. He has a bright army record in connection with his duties as chaplain during the war.

A gentleman named Gilbert, of Utica, built a beautiful chapel for the Westminster Church, and has perfected the generous act by making it over in fee simple to the trustees of the Church. The Northern Advocate says it is now a part of their property; and a gem of a building for such purposes.

The National Baptist, of Philadelpuia, thinks that the occupancy of that city by three different Associations, instead of all the churches being in one body, operates to their disadvantage. Ordinarily the churches adjacent to each other are in the same Association. Notwithstanding this intermingling of the three Associations, there is considerable harmony. Steps are about to be taken to unite all the churches in Philadelphia into one Association.

Rev. A. Judson Hastings has accepted the call of the South Pittsburgh Baptist Church, and will enter upon his duties this month.

A Presbytery in Ohio, of the Old School Presbyterian Church, fixed the compensation of supplies at ten dollars per Sabbath. The Reformed Presbyterian Presbytery at its late meeting at Austinburgh, Ohio, makes the price fifteen dollars.

Rev. Dr. Huntington, of Boston, declares fairs and pic nics, to pay church debts, a mixture of merchandise, ooljolery and merry making, which is casting up a treacherous highway at the Lord's feet—casting out the heart of the church to extend its outward prosperity.

The Church Union, in its assumption of independency, is unnecessarily severe sometimes, in its strictures, as in the instance of asserting that Prof. Finney's ministrations in the pulpit of the church on Madison Square, New York city, would not number ten righteous persons to tarry through his ministry for the remnant of his life, such is the fashionable dread of truth plainly told.

The Religious Herald, Baptist paper, contains a letter from a Georgia correspondent, who, in writing about the Baptists in that State, says they are classified as follows: 1. Antinominans, 2. Arminians; 3. Spurgeonites; 4. Polynomans. This last group is designed to represent those who Paul said were "tossed about by every wind of doctrine." There are also two other pictures made up out of these groups: 1. Land markers; 2. Conservatives.

The First Synod of the West of the United Presbyterian Church, at its late session in Allegheny City, passed a resolution in which the Synod expressed their decided disapprobation of that mode of preaching the gospel which prevails to some extent, which consists of reading discources from a manuscript. The same body took action in regard to the Temperance question, approving open organizations instead of societies on the principle of secrecy.

Since the death of Archbishop Hughes the grand Cathedral projected by him and commenced before his death on Fifth avenue, New York, the work had languished. Recently the Catholic clergy of that and neighboring dioceses have taken in hand the question of its completion, and it is thought the magnificent marble walls will rise rapidly. The cathedral will be perhaps the finest church structure in America.

The Commission appointed in England to examine Ritualism, have reported that they consider it expedient "to restrain in the public services of the United Church of England and Ireland all variations in respect of vesture from that which has long been the established usage of the said United Church, and think that this may be best secured by providing aggrieved parishioners with an easy and effectual process for complaint and redress."

Bishop Ames, in some remarks to the Indiana Conference, in regard to transfers, took the ground that there were no Conference lines restricting the prerogatives of the Episcopacy. Conferences were but segments of the whole Church, for the better administration of its discipline.

GEN. SICKLES AND MR. JOHNSON.—In April, 1866, Captain Bryant, of the Sixth Infantry, proposed the health of Jeff. Davis and President Johnson at a friendly meeting in Orangeburg, South Carolina. A brother officer named Britton, declared that such a toast should not be drunk in his presence, and struck the glasses down. He was attacked and driven away, and the health of Davis, Johnson, and other rebels was pledged by the party. For this offence Bryant was tried by court martial for conduct unbecoming an officer, and was sentenced to a public reprimand and to a deprivation of his sword for one month. Gen. Sickles reviewed the case, ordered him to be dismissed the service and sent his decision to Johnson for his action. He annulled Gen. Sickles' order, and Capt. Bryant was not dismissed the service. On the contrary, he was soon after brevetted and Gen. Sickles superceded.

THERE is a panic in South Canaan, Connecticut, about a black snake thirty feet long and thirty inches thick, which is said to live in a swamp, and subsist by sucking cows. One man has offered one hundred dollars for its capture alive, and fifty dollars to have it killed. Strong efforts are making to have the town authorities offer a sufficient reward to secure its capture. We have heard of several such snakes in years gone by, and they have all mysteriously disappeared, without one bequeathing his skin to a museum.

THE first newspaper advertisement was published in the "Imperial Intelligencer" (London) in 1648. There were few for years, and none of definite form until May 1667, when the first notice under the name of advertisement was published, and ran thus:

"An advertisement.—We are, by His Majesty's command, to give notice that, by reason of the great heats which are growing on, there will be no further touching for the evil till Michaelmas next, and accordingly, all persons concerned are to forbear their addresses till that time.

"A well known minister repudiates the received theory that they have music in heaven. He declares that his choir has given him so much trouble on earth, that the idea of music in the world to come is wholly repugnant to his ideas of eternal peace and rest."

This would be all right if there was any reason to suppose that the music of heaven would be scientific, or conducted by a choir, but if all the people praise the Lord there as they are commanded to do here, the music will create no more trouble than it does in churches where there are no choirs.

INVISIBLE POISONS.

The Medicis and the Borgias fortified their systems with powerful antidotes against the subtle poisons with which they used to destroy their enemies, and which they feared might one day be employed against themselves. There are powerful poisons, almost as deadly, latent within how of us think of taking any precautions. These banes are in the air. When the atmosphere is surcharged with them, as it sometimes is at this season, epidemic fevers ensue. The fever which has just closed has been a most remarkable one. The amount of rain that has fallen has been enormous, and the exhalations from same still have been, and are, dense and copious almost beyond example. These exhalations have a power to make confluence on the vital powers, and predispose the system to disease. Even with people who are enjoying the utmost debility, has tonic and depressive. These symptoms are generally more pronounced at night than at other times—hence, they come into some thing worse—with INTERMITTENT, REMITTENT, low fever, etc. Nothing so natural as that the vegetable kingdom has every function to perform in the economy of animal life. For from any ingredient that is in the slightest degree noxious it runs to breath, and carries it up into the atmosphere, where, in its unrefined state, it is unnecessarily superior, as a deterrent preparation, to any other tonic, herb, or mineral, at present used in medical practice. A course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, thoroughly regulating, a perfect safeguard against intermittent and remittent fevers.

BLIND EYES RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his genius and skill in restoring her TO ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like hers are consigned to everlasting darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DOCTOR KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him through her brother, Simon P. Fisher, all hopes were entertained of her ever resting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the facts above stated.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions.

FRIDAY, Oct. 11.—Court commenced at 10 a. m., Judge Stowe on the bench, when the following cases were taken up and disposed of:

FELONIOUS ASSAULT.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Hensler, charged with felonious assault and battery, which was on trial at adjournment on Thursday, was concluded. The jury acquitted the defendant of the felony and found him guilty of assault and battery. The prisoner was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. James Cahill, indicted for malicious mischief, was next taken up. The defendant, it appears, occupied a dwelling house, No. 26 Martin street, Allegheny, belonging to Edward Martin, the prosecutor, who alleged that he had torn off the wall paper and otherwise abused the house. A tenant who occupied the building before the defendant moved in, testified that the house was in a bad condition at the time he went in the premises, in April. This witness was corroborated by others, in his testimony as to the bad condition of the house. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty, and placed the costs upon the prosecutor, Edward Martin.

VIOLATING THE LIVERY STABLE ACT.

William Reems was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with a misdemeanor under the Livery Stable Act. The prosecutor, Alexander Fitcairn, of the firm of Fitcairn & Smith, livery stable keepers in the Fifth ward of this city, was called, and testified that some time in August last the defendant hired at the stable of the firm two horses and a barouche, valued at $800, for the purpose of attending a camp-meeting at McKeesport. By careless driving and improper conduct on the part of the defendant, the vehicle was damaged to the extent of one hundred dollars, and the horses considerably abused.

The defense called a large number of witnesses, whose testimony showed that the establishment was not in good condition when they hired it, and that one of the horses was foundered before he was driven by the defendant. The jury returned a verdict and prosecutor to pay costs. Court adjourned.

Police Items.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT AND BATERY.

Samuel Johnson, a colored man, yesterday made information before Alderman Donaldson, against Joseph Bartley, carriage driver for Mr. Robb on Cliff street, charging him with felonious assault and battery. The parties had a difficulty, which terminated in a fight, when, it is alleged, Bartley cut Johnson in the leg with a knife. The accused was arrested, and in default of bail was committed to jail for a hearing, which will take place at six o'clock this evening.

KEEPING A FEROCIOUS DOG.

Adam Schweinhart was charged, before Alderman Taylor, with keeping a ferocious dog, on oath of Alice Murphy, who alleges that while passing the premises of the accused, on Penn street, in the Fifth ward, the dog came out on the street and bit her, and tore her clothes. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Schweinhart.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Patrick Karney made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, against Timothy Casey, charging him with assault and battery. They not knowing each other, started the team, when the boy fell or was thrown in front of the wheel, which passed over his head, crushing his jaw bone and fracturing his skull. He was picked up and carried into Taylor's drug store, apparently lifeless, and Dr. Boggs summoned. After some time he was restored to consciousness, when he was removed to his home. He was still living at last accounts, and his attending physician had hopes of his recovery.

City Mortality.

Dr. A. G. McCandless, Physician to the Board of Health, furnishes the following report of deaths in the city, with the diseases occasioning them, for the week commencing September 29th, and ending October 6th, 1867:

The causes of death were: Typhoid fever 3; tubercular peritonitis 1; diarrhœa 1; small pox 1; dropsy 1; intestinal strangulation 1; unknown 1; still born 3; cholera infantum 1; accident 1; disease of brain 1; croup 1.

The ages of the above were: Under 1 year, 3; from 1 to 2, 3; 5 to 10 1; 20 to 30, 2; 30 to 40, 2; 40 to 50, 1; 50 to 60, 1; 60 to 70, 1; 80 to 90, 1.

Of these there were 11 males, 5 females, 14 white and 2 colored. Total 16.

ARREST OF HUCKSTERS.—Eighteen hucksters, who have been doing business in the Allegheny market, without having taken out a revenue license, were returned yesterday, on oath of the Mayor, were arrested and taken before Commissioner McCandless, who held them to bail to answer. In addition to the license they will have the penalty and accruing costs to pay. "Verily the way of the transgressor is hard."

—The San Francisco Bulletin, talking of trees, says, "the noble redwoods which could be seen from this point a few years ago, covering the hills in the rear of Oakland,—not a tree is left, and the hills present an exceedingly bare and barren aspect. It is also certain that there is not now sufficient moisture concentrated on these hills to germinate a new redwood forest. The Coast Range is being rapidly stripped of redwood trees, and Nature, baffled in its work of restoration, by fire and drought, lets the verdure-clad hills go back to barrenness. If it a rare thing to find a new redwood forest springing up anywhere."

The consequence is that by the loss of moisture, wheat and barley no longer mature in the region thus denuded of its trees.

—M. Grandidier has presented to the French Academy an egg of the remarkable extinct bird, the Epiornis, of Madagascar. Having lately returned from the Island, he says the eggs of Epiornis are found on a plain at one side of the island, and at a height of several metres above the sea-level. Strange that though numerous eggs have been discovered, the bones of this creature are rarely found. From what M. Grandidier has learned from the natives, there seems little doubt that the Epiornis is extinct.

—The son of a nobleman in England who studied divinity at Oxford, had a yacht, in which he spent most of his time with some fellow students. Being but very imperfectly prepared for examination, he could hardly answer any question, when the examiner, to facilitate him, asked: "Pray, sir, how many persons in the Trinity?" The pupil, thinking the professor alluded to his boat, named after the college, answered: "Four, sir, beside the steersman."

—By a recent act of the British Parliament, persons who, in consequence of their religious belief, close their factories and workshops on Saturdays until sunset, are permitted to open them from sunset till nine o'clock, during which period only females and young persons shall work.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

State Christian Convention.

The call for this conference of pastoral and lay delegates which was signed by the officers of the Young Men's Christian Association and a large number of the pastors of this city, was published some time since and addressed to the different evangelical churches of Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. It is to assemble in the First Presbyterian Church, on Wood street, of this city, on Tuesday evening, 22d inst., for organization and prayer. On the 23d and 24th questions pertaining to individual and co-operative christian effort will be discussed. On the evening of Thursday, 24th, the anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held. Messrs. George H. Stuart, Esq., of Philadelphia, and R. L. Wood, Esq., of Chicago, and other eminent christian workers, have promised to be present. Advices have already been received of large delegations to come from the Young Men's Christian Associations of Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Columbus, Wheeling, besides numerous church delegates from all parts of the State. As the convention will be very large, it is of the first importance that Pittsburgh should extend a large and generous hospitality to the delegates from a distance. It is earnestly requested by the Committee of Arrangements that the pastors of all churches in sympathy with this convention continue to call the attention of their congregations, to the duty of hospitality; the name, residence and accommodations for delegates to be reported to the committees representing the Young Men's Christian Association in the respective churches. Where these do not exist, it is requested that the desired particulars be given by the pastor or other authority, to the chairman or secretary of the committees, or to the Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. Those who compose the following committees are urged to press this matter at once, as no time is to be lost. Those who can contribute in money will afford a most acceptable service in this cause, as arrangements have been made with the hotels for the reception of delegates at greatly reduced rates.

Gold opened stronger at 143¾, and closed at 143¾. There is nothing now that would indicate what course the market will take. The elections could not influence the premium, but our large export and decreasing imports might give it a downward tendency.

Government securities are weak and transactions light. The reports of having received larger lots of counterfeit Seven Thirty bonds from Pittsburgh can not be traced to any bank or banking house here. Stocks higher and excited, except Mining shares.

Closing New York quotations received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 143¾; 1881's, 115¼; 5-20s, 1862, 112; 1864, 108¾; 1865, 109; Consols, 107¼@ 10-40s, 100½; 7-30, 105¾.

—The course of our foreign commerce during the last six years has resulted in a loss to us of five hundred and twenty millions of gold. We have sent abroad within the time mentioned six hundred millions of our bonds, for which we have been paid on account about four hundred thousand dollars. We commenced the war with a square account with the world, or one very nearly so.

—The New York Times—the organ of the Treasury Department—has the following on Mr. McCulloch's contraction scheme:

"That the gradual withdrawal of the plain greenback circulation of 1862 is under, since his Fort Wayne speech in October, 1865, (just two years ago,) has not accomplished and is in no very fair way to accomplishing the end and purpose of the Secretary to reduce the price of gold, to bring the country to early specie payments, is, no doubt, due in a large measure to political causes, for which he, as a member of Mr. Johnston's cabinet, is but partially responsible. But it admits of serious doubt, after all, whether the original volume of plain greenbacks, free of interest to the holder, and generally acceptable to the public, or its reduction, has had much to do with the price of gold since October, 1865; certainly the withdrawal of $37,000,000 in the two years up to the loss of $4,000,000 per annum in interest—in pursuance of the Secretary's Fort Wayne theory, has not brought the popular sentiment of the country no nearer to specie payments, and we believe that when this sentiment shall finally take shape as to the proper time for restoring the specie standard, it will be with the understanding that from $350,000,000 to $400,000,000 of these notes will remain in permanent circulation, as the basis thereof, and so long as the people, the banks, the Custom House, and the treasury itself, find it convenient to use them in place of gold."

—The Secretary of the Treasury is doing his best to live up to his avowed policy of the appreciation of the currency with a view to the early resumption of specie payments. By the order of the Solicitor exhibit of the public debt it will be seen that he has cancelled legal tender notes to the amount of fifty millions of dollars, the limit allowed by law. In funding Seven Thirties, a process which must precede any additional cancellations of legal tenders in the same direction. Their reduction during the month amounts to $33,490,9-5, thus increasing the funding operations, by persistently pursuing this policy it is believed that all the Seven Thirties can be funded by July of next year, thus making resumption of specie payments a thing practicable within a time sufficiently near to discuss how and when. It is already apparent, however, that vigorous efforts will be made at the coming session of Congress to head off Mr. McCulloch's contraction policy and to procure a further expansion of the currency.—Phila. Ledger.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 11, 1867.

CRUDE—The Crude market was very quiet to-day, not a single sale of any character reported, and while spot oil is unchanged, future deliveries are a little dull, in consequence of the improved prospects for an early resumption of navigation, and we heard of one offer to sell on first water at a slight reduction, 11¾. We continue to quote spot oil at 14c, and, so far as we could learn, there were no offers to either buy or sell. Telegrams to-day report sales at Meadville and Oil City, and upon the whole, the prospects for an early resumption of navigation are more favorable than during any time this fall.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil appeared to be dull and weak to-day, and for October delivery, prices are lower. We can report sales of two 400 barrel lots for all October, buyer's option, at 38¾c; 1500—500 each for December, January and February, at 33¾c; 1000 for December, at 32¾c, cash, and 500—last evening—for October, at 36c. All already remarked, the market was dull and weak, and, as will be seen by reference to sales, prices, compared with yesterday, are a shade lower. We can assign no particular reason for the present apparent lull, unless it is the improved prospects for a rise.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the object of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return them a fair profit, will present to the public at large the most liberal inducements and advantages ever offered in connection with any Presentation Enterprise. Within a few days 35 miles, now graded, will be added, and the track carried entirely across the mountains to a point in the Great Salt Lake valley, whence further progress will be easy and rapid. Iron, materials and equipment are ready at hand for 300 miles of road, and 10,000 men are employed in the construction.

The local business upon the completed portion surpasses all previous estimates. The figures for the quarter ending August 31st are as follows, in GOLD:

GROSS EARNINGS.	OPERATING EXPENSES.	NET EARNINGS.
$487,579 61	$86,618 47	$401,031 17

Or at the rate of two millions per annum, of which more than three-fourths are net profit on less than 100 miles worked. This is upon the actual, legitimate traffic of the road, with its terminus in the mountains, and with only the normal ratio of government transportation, and is exclusive of the materials carried for the further extension of the road.

The Company's interest liabilities during the same period were less than $15,000.

Add to this an ever-expanding through traffic and the proportions of the future business become immense.

The Company are authorized to continue their line eastward until it shall meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountain ranges.

Assuming that they will build and control half the entire distance between San Francisco and the Missouri River, as now seems probable, the United States will have invested in the completion of 865 miles $28,592,000, or at the average rate of $33,000 per mile, not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 acres of the Public Lands. By becoming a joint investor in the magnificent enterprise, and by waiving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT, INVITES THE CO-OPERATION OF PRIVATE CAPITALISTS, and has carefully guarded their interests against all ordinary contingencies.

The Company offer for sale, through us, their

First Mortgage Thirty Year, Six per cent. Coupon Bonds,

Principal and Interest payable in Gold Coin in New York city. They are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached. The bonds are offered at 90 90 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st added, in currency, at which rate they yield

Nine per cent. upon the Investment.

These Bonds, authorized by Act of Congress, are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same amount only as the bonds granted by the Government, and represent in all cases, the first lien upon the road, equipped, and in productive running, in which have been invested Government grants, subsidies, stocks, bonds, donations, surplus earnings, etc., and which in no case, exceed the amount of the issue of First Mortgage Bonds which can be issued upon it.

The Central Pacific First Mortgage Bonds have all the advantages of the Land Grant Bonds of the Pacific Railroad Act of Congress, and have in addition many other special advantages over all other classes of railroad bonds.

First—They are the superior claim upon altogether the most vital and valuable portion of the whole line.

Second—Beside the fullest benefit of the Government subsidy, they have the benefit of the whole of the road receives the benefit of large donations from California.

Third—While the entire cost of grading 800 miles on two-third San Francisco is concentrated in the first 150 miles, the bonds are limited to $16,000 per mile.

Fourth—A local business already yielding three-fold the annual interest liabilities, with advantageous rates payable in coin.

Fifth—The Company offer only the interest of its Bonds being payable in coin, upon a legally binding agreement.

Having carefully investigated the resources, progress and prospects of the road, and the management of its affairs, we unhesitatingly recommend these bonds to Trustees, Executors, Institutions, and others, as an unusually sound, safe and remunerative form of permanent investment.
